BONNER
PRIVATE WINE PARTNERSHIP

Our Philosophy

Founded by Will Bonner, the Bonner Private Wine Partnership is a group of wine lovers who come together to import great, small batch wines that might otherwise get overlooked by large importers. No middle men. No additive-packed supermarket wines. No inflated costs. With our Weekly Pour club, we deliver 4 expertly curated bottles from all over the world each month. Our wines range from the Old World elegance of Europe, to bold New World offerings from places like Argentina and Australia. Sometimes it's a fresh new discovery, other times a beloved classic — but always the perfect pour for your next dinner or gathering. We wanted to recreate that special moment when the waiter, sommelier, or bartender knows exactly what you need and takes care of it for you. No decisions, no stress — just the joy of knowing you're in good hands. Our team includes a boots-on-the- ground wine explorer, a Bordeaux- trained winemaker turned YouTube wine guru, and our founder Will Bonner.

The Weekly Pour is about making wine fun and effortless again. Every month, we send you 4 handpicked bottles, like the trusted recommendation from a wine-savvy friend, or the house wine suggestion you end up loving. All you have to do is sit back and enjoy the experience...

Bad Brothers Facón Selection

Syrah - Altos Terruñosa

FACÓN Selection Syrah 2019 comes from a historic vineyard planted in 1950 in Corral Quemado, high in Argentina's Calchaquí Valley at 2,100 meters above sea level. Grown on sandy clay soils and trained on a traditional pergola system, this old-vine Syrah is hand harvested and aged 15 months in French oak before additional bottle aging. Aromas of blackberry, strawberry, baking spices, balsamic notes, vanilla, and toffee lead to a balanced palate with remarkable freshness, elegant persistence, and a refined finish.

Cascina Galarin Monferrato Nebbiolo DOC Superiore Crocevia 2022

Crocevia 2022 is an artisanal Nebbiolo from the historic hills of Monferrato, crafted by Giovanni and Marco Carosso at Cascina Galarin, a family estate whose cellar stones date back to the late 1700s. Grown on clay and calcareous soils, this wine undergoes a 30 day maceration followed by 20 months in barrel and is bottled unfiltered during a waning moon, preserving purity and character. Aromas unfold in layers of dried roses, mint, licorice, spice, and truffle, leading to an elegant, structured palate with firm yet balanced tannins and remarkable depth. A refined expression of traditional Piedmontese winemaking with long aging potential.

The Vineyards

Located in Monferrato, Piedmont, these old Nebbiolo vines grow on clay and calcareous soils at moderate elevation, benefiting from ideal sun exposure and natural drainage that enhance structure and aromatic intensity.

Muscardini Cellars Tesoro. Red Blend 2019

Tesoro is the flagship blend of winemaker Michael Muscardini, inspired by his Italian heritage and shaped by California's Sonoma Valley. Built around Sangiovese, and complemented by Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah, this Super Tuscan-style wine reflects both tradition and innovation. Crafted from rocky soils and a warm, balanced climate, the 2019 vintage shows depth, structure, and elegance, with careful use of oak enhancing complexity without overshadowing the fruit. With nearly 2,000 cases produced, Tesoro stands as a refined yet expressive blend designed to evolve beautifully over time.

The Vineyards

Sourced from vineyards in Livermore Valley and San Francisco Bay, CA, USA, where gravel-based soils and an east–west orientation allow cooling marine breezes to balance warm days. These conditions promote even ripening, preserving freshness while building structure and concentration in the fruit.

Notes

- ~300–800 feet
- Traditional farming
- Hand-harvested
- Aged in French oak (25% new)

Pair With:

Chicken parmesan, pasta arrabbiata, Italian meatballs, aged cheeses

Sierra Lima Alfa, Cabernet Franc 2022

Sierra Lima Alfa is the personal project of Francisco Morelli Rubio, shaped by years working alongside the Dávalos family in the Calchaquí Valley. This Cabernet Franc is made with minimal intervention, using native yeast fermentation and mostly stainless steel to preserve clarity and freshness. Only a small portion sees oak, adding subtle structure without overshadowing the fruit. The result is a precise and expressive wine, where red fruit, herbal notes, and natural acidity reflect both the grape and the high-altitude environment.

The Vineyards

Grown in Cafayate, Salta, at around 6,500 feet above sea level. Large temperature swings, sandy soils, and intense sun allow slow ripening while preserving freshness and balance.

Notes

- ~6,500 feet
- Cabernet Franc
- Native yeast
- Minimal oak

Pair With:

Grilled meats, roast chicken, mushroom dishes, soft cheeses
